The Meeting at Curwensville.

A meeting called by some ninety signers representing themselves as Democrats, was to be held at Curwensville last evening, for the purpose of "spitting upon and repudiating" the St. Mary's platform.

Among the signers to this call, we recognize the names of several who have heretofore been recognized as entirely consistent in their adherence to the usas ges of the Democratic party, and, without knowing the facts, we venture to say that their names were obtained through misrepresentation of some sort or other.

The instigators of this movement may probably be sincere in their motives. It may be that it was not intended as a means of securing the defeat of certain Democratic candidates. If so, they can easily satisfy the public of this fact by at once acquiescing in the action of the Assembled Democracy of the county in this place last evening.

The professed object of the meeting at Curwensville, is to repudiate certain of the resolutions adopted at the recent legislative conference at St. Mary's. That they are susceptible to objection, we have heretofore admitted. But we submit to those at the head of this movement whether it would not have been wiser to and D. F.
